National criminal history check for the pre-service teacher

As part of the assessment by the TRBWA as to whether you are a fit and proper person, consideration is given to any criminal history you may have, pursuant to section 24(c) of the Act.

You are required to consent to the TRBWA completing a national criminal history check. Consent is provided by completing a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form, which can be found at the end of this application form and on the TRBWA website (trb.wa.gov.au).

Proof of identity requirements

You are required to provide four identity documents with the consent for a national criminal history check. The combined identity documents must contain your full name, date of birth and a photograph. If the identity documents do not include a photograph, you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in the 'Authorised Third Parties for the Verification of Identity' information sheet, which can be found at the end of this application form. Please refer to the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form for a list of documents required for the national criminal history check.

Change of name

If you provide identity documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your four identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Please note, any other name variations may require evidence to support the change of name.

Special provisions for proof of identity

There may be circumstances in which you may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements. If you are unable to provide the minimum identity requirements, as listed on the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form (found at the end of this application form), please contact the TRBWA who will assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method. Please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au.

Verification of identity

As part of the process to undertake a national criminal history check, the TRBWA is also required to verify the identity of a preservice teacher. This involves the comparison of the original photographic identification document provided as part of the application process with a visual comparison of the preservice teacher.

Verification will be completed by an authorised third party on behalf of the TRBWA.

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is an occupation or person as listed in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2018. A list of authorised third parties is available in the 'Authorised Third Parties for the Verification of Identity' information sheet which can be found at the end of this form.

To verify a person's identity, the authorised third party must:

1. sight all identity documents (including the photographic identification document) used as part of this online form
2. make a face-to-face visual comparison between the person and the original photo identification document; and
3. verify through a declaration as to the person's identity.

The authorised third party is to be presented with all the original identity documents submitted as part of the application for comparison. If they are unable to establish that you are the person represented in the application, additional photo identification may be requested.

The 'Verification of identity by an authorised third party' declaration is found at the end of this form.

If you are unable to access an authorised third party to complete the identity verification process, please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au for further advice.

Please note, this application will not be finalised until this process has been completed.
